Early Music Afternoons

TWENTY-SIXTH SEASON 2014–2015

DUO MARESIENNE

special guests

The Kapsberger toccata received a magisterial performance, dramatically juxtaposing thoughtful, expressive passages with flashes of extraordinary virtuosity, energy and precision. — THE BOSTON MUSICAL INTELLIGENCER

The audience had to pay quiet attention to hear the melodic and vocal craftsmanship of Henriksen’s artistry... It was wonderful to hear the continuo part realized clearly by gambist Carol Lewis and theorbo performer Henriksen... Lewis gave a fine, consistent, clearly voiced bass line to all the works to which she contributed throughout the concert... There was a fine balance between the theorbo and gamba. — THE LEXINGTON MINUTE MAN

For her part, the gambist Carol Lewis offered us a brilliant demonstration of her instrument. Her technique and her musicality, her breathing dexterity transported us, in Marin Marais’ Grand Ballet, to a distant time, where music was not noise but elegance and discretion... The[theorbo’s] subtle sonority, its nuances full of finesse found in Henriksen an ideal interpreter. — CENTRE PRESSE, POITIERS, FRANCE

I was impressed by Henriksen’s powerful and vibrant technique. He seems to get a lot more volume out of his instrument than most players, but without sacrificing tone. — LITTLE SOCIETY OF AMERICA QUARTERLY

All concerts take place at the Somerville Museum, One Westwood Road (at Central St.), Somer- ville, MA, and begin at 3:00 p.m. For further information, please call 617-666-9810 or visit www.somervillemuseum.org. Admission is $19 for the general public, $14 for students, seniors, and Museum members.

We'll begin our 26th season with music from our own country – from its earliest colonial days to the beginnings of the United States of America, and including a delightful ballad by Benjamin Franklin entitled “The Downfall of Piracy”! Scottish music is the theme of our second concert, in which we'll bring you lively instrumental music from the highlands and lowlands. One of the finest countertenors and cornettists anywhere (and our good friend!), Michael Collver will return in January to sing and play Spanish music with viols and vihuela. In March, we'll turn our attention to the German Baroque and all of the wonderful violin music to be found there, including Walther’s “Imitation of the Cuckoo.” Our April program will take us to Renaissance France, for some instrumental gems for lute, Renaissance guitar and viols, and even a Ballet to be danced by horses! Join us once again in celebrating our rich musical heritage, brought to us from European courts, countryside, and from the homes of people like us.

Duo Maresienne
Duo Maresienne is no ordinary instrumental duo. From the intricate Italian and English fantasies of the 16th and 17th centuries to the most spectacular French and German showpieces of the 18th century, this ensemble treats its audiences to a variety of music for some fascinating and elegant instruments – the lute, theorbo, and viols. Named for the great French Baroque composer and gambist Marin Marais, Duo Maresienne explores the musical spirit of Renaissance and Baroque Europe. Carol Lewis and Olav Chris Henrikson appear individually and together, and collaborating with internationally acclaimed ensembles including the Boston Camerata, Telemonik Baroque Orchestra and Hesperion. They have recorded on Astrée, EMI, Harmonia Mundi, Nonesuch, Erato, Centaur, Decca, Telarc and Koch International. Daniel Pinkham’s “Sagas” (1998) was composed for Duo Maresienne.

OLAV CHRIS HENRIKSEN, acclaimed throughout Europe and North America as a soloist on lute, theorbo and early guitars, has also performed and recorded with the Boston Camerata, Handel & Haydn Society, Wenerly Consort, Boston Baroque, Emmanuel Music, Ensemble Chaconne, and Musicians of the Old Post Road, among others. Recent performances include appearances at the Library of Congress (Washington DC), Wadsworth Atheneum (Hartford CT) and the National Gallery in London. His new solo recording, Cu Adulto del Norte, is on the Centaur label; his first solo recording, La Guitarra Royalle: French Baroque and Classical Guitar Music, is on the Museum Music label. Mr. Henrikson performs and lectures frequently at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, playing musical instruments from the Museum’s collection. He has also lectured at Harvard University, Cambridge; Northeastern University, Boston; Nelson Atkins Museum, Kansas City; Musikhøgskolen, Oslo; Aston Magna Academy, Rutgers University; and Lincoln Center Institute, New York. He teaches at the Boston Conservatory and the University of Southern Maine.

CAROL LEWIS has been called a “zealous and passionate champion” of the viola da gamba. She has frequently demonstrated her musical virtuosity and versatility as a soloist in recitals in the United States and abroad. A former student of Jordi Savall, Ms. Lewis holds a soloist diploma from the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis (Basel, Switzerland). She is an accomplished ensemble musician, having toured and recorded with Hesperion, the Boston Camerata, Ensemble Chaconne and Capriccio Stravagante. She recently appeared with Boston Camerata at Hamilton College (New York), with Capella Claussens at Providence College (Rhode Island), and with Ensemble Chaconne at Georgia Southwestern College. Ms. Lewis has taught at Festival dei Saraceni (Pamparato, Italy), Milano Civica Scuola di Musica (Italy), New England Conservatory of Music, Amherst Early Music, and the annual summer conclave of the Viola da Gamba Society of America. She is the current president of the Viola da Gamba Society of America. She was also a co-founder of the Society for Historically-Informed Performance.
