TWENTY-NINTH SEASON
2017-2018

Telemann's three movement Fantasia II in D Minor displayed Lewis's interpretive brilliance, each stirring movement enacted with solemnity and consummate musicianship. ☞ THE BOSTON MUSICAL INTELLIGENCER

Guitarist Olav Chris Henriksen played with panache, especially in "Cumba," a transcription of an African dance. ☞ THE BOSTON GLOBE

Particularly noteworthy (was) the wonderful soprano gamba work by Jordi Savall and Carol Lewis... "Ludi Musici from Germany" (composed by Samuel Scheidt in the early seventeenth century) was gorgeous, suggesting burgundy shadows of melancholy and included imitation between gambas that finally burst into a joyful chorus in "Galliard Battaglia XXI." ☞ STYLUS FINE ARTS

Rudolph Straube's charming Fantasia in C Major and Tempo di Minuet followed, providing the last captivating baroque lute solos by Henriksen. ☞ THE BOSTON MUSICAL INTELLIGENCER

In [Nico Mubly's] "Old Bones," about Richard III's death and exhumation, the iridescent lute of Olav Henriksen complemented the countertenor, who sang with torrential force on text by Richard III enthusiast Philippa Langley. ☞ THE BOSTON GLOBE

Henriksen performed a wonderful virtuosic division on "Suzanne un jour." Carol Lewis' ornaments on the top line were lively and entertaining throughout. ☞ NEWSLETTER OF THE VIOLA DA GAMBA SOCIETY-NEW ENGLAND

By the end of her recital, Carol Lewis had instilled in this listener a heightened regard for the viola da gamba – that rich, protean instrument she plays so winningly... How lucky [Hume and Corkine] were in having so zestful and passionate a champion as Carol Lewis. ☞ THE BOSTON GLOBE join us!

DUO MARESIENNE
& special guests

for the 29th Annual Season of Early Music at the Somerville Museum

Please join Duo Maresienne and their special guests for the 2017-2018 Season of Early Music in the intimate setting of the Somerville Museum.

ABOUT THE 2017-18 CONCERT SERIES

Welcome to our 29th season! We'll begin in October with French music for the smallest and the largest of our instruments: pardessus de viole, 14-course theorbo and everything in between! Olav Chris Henriksen will continue in November with 17th-century theorbo, lute and guitar music from Rome. We're very excited to welcome two newcomers to our series in January: the dazzling mezzo-soprano Burcu Gulec and the virtuoso percussionist George Lernis, who will perform Italian music with our own El Dorado Ensemble. In March we will have several guests with us to play English renaissance music for "broken" consort – not something you hear every day! El Dorado Ensemble will return in April for a concert of ravishing German instrumental music. Come join us as we celebrate our rich musical heritage, brought to us from European courts, countryside, and from the homes of people like us.

ABOUT DUO MARESIENNE

Duo Maresienne is no ordinary instrumental duo. From the intricate Italian and English fantasies of the 15th and 16th centuries to the most spectacular French and German showpieces of the 18th century, this ensemble treats its audiences to a variety of music for some fascinating and elegant instruments – the lute, theorbo, viola da gamba and early guitars. Named for the great French Baroque composer and gambist Marin Marais, Duo Maresienne explores the musical spirit of Renaissance and Baroque Europe. Carol Lewis and Olav Chris Henriksen appear individually and together, and performing with internationally acclaimed ensembles including the Boston Camerata, Tafelmusik Baroque Orchestra and Hespèrion. In June 2017 they were among the performers appearing with countertenor Anthony Roth Costanzo in a concert at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum featuring works of composer Nico Muhly. They have recorded on Astrée, EMI, Harmonia Mundi, Nonesuch, Erato, Centaur, Decca, Telarc and Koch International. Daniel Pinkham's "Sagas" (1998) was composed for Duo Maresienne.

OLAV CHRIS HENRIKSEN, acclaimed throughout Europe and North America as a soloist on lute, theorbo and early guitars, has performed and recorded with the Boston Camerata, Handel & Haydn Society, Waverly Consort, Boston Baroque, Emmanuel Music, Ensemble Chaconne, and Musicians of the Old Post Road, among others. Recent performances include appearances at the American Antiquarian Society (Worcester MA), Library of Congress (Washington DC), and with Ensemble Chaconne at Drew University (New Jersey). His latest solo recording, Guitar of the North, is on the Centaur label; his first solo recording, La Guitarrre Royale: French Baroque and Classical Guitar Music, is on the Museum Music label. Mr. Henriksen performs and lectures frequently at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, playing musical instruments from the Museum's collection. He has also lectured at Harvard University, Cambridge; Northeastern University, Boston; Nelson Atkins Museum, Kansas City; Musikkhögskolen, Oslo; Aston Magna Academy, Rutgers University; and Lincoln Center Institute, New York. He has taught at the Boston Conservatory and the University of Southern Maine.

CAROL LEWIS has been called a "zestful and passionate champion" of the viola da gamba. She has frequently demonstrated her musical virtuosity and versatility as a soloist in recitals in the United States and abroad. A former student of Jordi Savall, Ms. Lewis holds a soloist diploma from the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis (Basel, Switzerland). She is an accomplished ensemble musician, having toured and recorded with Hespèrion, Boston Camerata, Ensemble Chaconne and Capriccio Stravagante.
